A WORD FROM THE CHANCELLOR

DR. DAVID O. OYEDEPO
CHANCELLOR & CHAIRMAN, BOARD OF REGENTS,
LANDMARK UNIVERSITY

Landmark University is a crucible for raising reformers where we empower destinies, offering unlimited opportunities, and breaking new grounds. Our mandate is to raise a new generation of leaders who will restore the dignity of our great nation and the dignity of the black race.

John Maxwell said, "Everything rises and falls on leadership" How true. At Landmark University, we are committed to inculcating a new leadership concept that espouses Capacity building and Character, among others.

Here, our emphasis and commitment are to promote the Man-child model of education, that is, making men out of children, stirring accelerated maturity, intellectually and spiritually, through our unique custom-built programmes, which include the Total Man Concept (TMC), Entrepreneurial Development Studies (EDS), Agri-preneurship, and Towards a Total Graduate (TTG).

The thrust of our custom-built programmes is to raise an army of value-adding graduates, young men, and women in pursuit of vision, driving with unquenchable passion, commanding exploits in the field of human endeavours, a people to be envied, set to take the world by storms.

The content of these unique programmes emerges from the foundation of our Core Values of Spirituality, Integrity, Possibility Mentality, Capacity Building, Responsibility, Diligence and Sacrifice, through which leadership attitudes and skills are acquired.

To the glory of God, this has proved to be profitable values over the years and has empowered many of our graduates to keep scaling heights across the nations of the earth, including here in Nigeria.

To the graduating class of today, Jim Rohn once said, "There are two kinds of pain in life, the pain of discipline and the pain of regrets", but everyone chooses one, consciously or otherwise, in the journey of life.

As I commonly said to you, those who do not take responsibility today will end up as liability tomorrow. Destiny is a non-transferable responsibility. One either faces it or is phased out. Someone has also, said you are not a failure until you look for whom to blame for it. I believe the sound training you have received from here has equipped you to impact your world.

In conclusion, let me congratulate all parents and guardians of the graduates because you chose to give your sons, daughters, or wards access to the best form of education available in the world today.

A WORD FROM THE PRO-CHANCELLOR

PASTOR (MRS.) FAITH OYEDEPO

PRO-CHANCELLOR & VICE-CHAIRPERSON,
BOARD OF REGENTS, LANDMARK UNIVERSITY

With gratitude to God, it is my pleasure to specially welcome you all today to Landmark University, for the release of the 11th batch of pathfinders consisting of 61 graduates from the Postgraduate school and 617 from the undergraduate school.

Today's graduants, cast your mind back on your matriculation day on this campus, in this same hall; and here you are on this special day convocating. You overcame challenges, embraced growth, and achieved remarkable milestones during your journey here. Be aware, this convocation not only represents the end of one chapter but also the beginning of many new achievements and successes to come.

As you celebrate your accomplishments, also look forward to the challenges and opportunities that lie ahead. This institution has equipped you with the required knowledge, skills and moral compass to navigate life. Now, embrace your role as Landmark University ambassadors.

The Chancellor has rightly said "Everyone is responsible for the outcome of his life".

Therefore, run with the vision that God has given to you in your 4 or 5 years you have journeyed on this campus.

I therefore admonish you with these words from Scriptures in 1 Corinthians 9:24 to runso that you may win the prize as only those who are focused on their destinations get the clarity to overcome distractions and the determination to keep moving forward, no matter the obstacles.

As pathfinders, always remember that you have been raised as kings and queens, you must not be found behaving like slaves. You have imbibed royal principles; you must have proofs to show. So take responsibility!

To our esteemed parents and guardians, I am very delighted to join you in celebrating this moment. Your unwavering support, sacrifices and belief in their potentials have been instrumental to their academic success.

The seven core values of Landmark University have guided our graduates into becoming responsible leaders. They are well equipped to make positive impact in their respective fields. May you enjoy the fruits of your efforts in their lives.

Soon to be released pathfinders, go and make a leader you have been trained to be. May your journey be filled with continued success, growth, and fulfillment.

To all who are here to grace this occasion, congratulations.

Happy Convocation!
